

Sponsor Information

Airman and Family Readiness Center (A&FRC): As a Navy command located on a US Air Force Base the A&FRC serves as our Fleet and Family Support Center (FFSC). Their contact number is: 720-847-6681. The A&FRC is a valuable resource for help and information providing classes and one on one assistance for the following:

- a. Relocation and Transition Assistance
- b. Family Employment, volunteer and Colorado Area Info
- c. Family Life Skills and Deployment Support
- d. Personal Financial Management
- e. Exceptional Family Member Program (EFMP)
- f. Volunteer Opportunities

Military One Source: Military One Source is available 24 hours/day, 365 days/year. As you plan your move, you can call 800-342-9647 for general family relocation information, "Know Your Neighborhood Guides," Chamber of Commerce Guides and other referrals. Or, you can visit www.militaryonesource.com (UserID: military, Password: onsource).

Additional Questions:

- a. What are your leave plans and travel itinerary?
- b. If flying, do you need someone to meet you at the airport?
- c. What date do you plan to check on board?
- d. What date do you actually plan to be in the Colorado area?

Additional Links/Numbers

Child Development Center (CDC): 720-847-6174/7215

Air Force Lodge: 720-847-5899

American Red Cross (National): www.redcross.org

Navy & Marine Corps Relief Society: www.nmcrrs.org

Buckley Family Housing Community Center: 720-847-5815